

How to make your bio

- Please write a few lines about yourself, job title, company, educational background etc.
- Find a picture. Min. 300 dpi. (you will upload this later)

Here are two examples of how we end up making the bio with the text and picture you provide.

▶ Christina Boutrup, China analyzer, facilitator

Christina Boutrup is an experienced business journalist and former Asia Correspondent for the Danish daily Berlingske, currently with national Danish TV2 as China Analyzer. She is a frequently used keynote speaker and moderator and is widely respected for her research and extensive knowledge about China.

As a journalist, she covered The Middle Kingdom for more than a decade. She hosted radio- and TV documentaries about China and authored several well-received business books focusing on China, a new book about the great tech-revolution in China was published in September 2018, becoming an eye opener for many.

She is working to bridge the gap between Europe and China and is a part of the Advisory Board of ThinkChina.dk, a think tank of University of Copenhagen.

▶ Line Heidenheim Juul, Director of operation, China Experience

Line has been an avid China watcher for 12 years, working in Shanghai and advising Nordic companies, organization and education institutions. In her capacity as Director of Operation she is responsible for planning and executing executive education programs that can provide valuable and tangible insights for European business leaders, who need to understand and act on the China factor. She speaks Mandarin and has a master degree in China Studies from Aarhus University and Zhejiang University in Hangzhou, and is an alumni of Qinghua University in Beijing.